Hunt Military Communities Awards One Family Six-Months Free Rent

El Paso, TX, January 25, 2017 – Hunt Military Communities, the nation’s largest privatized military housing developer, is pleased to announce it awarded SSG Anthony Nelson, a Barksdale Family Housing resident, six-months free rent. SSG Nelson was entered into a Hunt Military Communities nationwide contest open to anyone who completed their CEL survey on-time. The CEL survey allows residents to score their neighborhood on factors such as maintenance, communication, leasing procedures and many additional items.

“We are so excited to announce that the winner is an Active Duty Airman stationed at Barksdale,” stated Barksdale Community Director, Adrienne Rainey. “SSG Nelson and his family are longtime residents of Barksdale and are well deserving of this award.”

SSG Nelson is married with three young boys, the youngest being seven weeks. He is currently on an unaccompanied tour of Osan, Korea. Once he returns he was PCS to a Hunt property at the Air Force Academy.

Hunt Military Communities received thousands of surveys which allows residents the opportunity to suggest improvements, where needed. Hunt took home more than a dozen CEL-A list awards as a result of our responses which demonstrate that we are listening to our residents and making the changes they’ve asked for to continue offering them the best living experience possible.
